

Freedom of the press, along with freedom of speech is a most precious value in America; but the privilege of owning an airwave under "our governments" control should mandate and represent responsibility, fairness, good judgement, and equality. This is no longer an issue of liberal or conservative; Republican or Democrat. It is now an issue of control and the ability to dictate. It doesn't appear evil until you realize the danger.